Exclusion of bulk drugs

1323. SHRI ASHOK NATH VERMA:
DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY:

Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS be pleased to state;

(a) what are the names of bulk drugs which have been excluded from price control after the announcement of price control order and when was each drug excluded;

(b) what were the reason$_s$ for exclusion of each of these drugs from price control;

(c) whether it i$_s$ a fact that these drugs were included under price control without verification of facts;

(d) whether it is also a fact that their prices were not fixed by his Ministry after the announcement of DPCO, 1987 till those drugs remained under price control; and

(e) if so, what are the reasons there for;

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND PARLIAMENTARY APFAIRS (SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA): (a) to (c) The inclusion)exclusion of bulk drugs under the Drugs (Prices Control) Order, 1987 is based on the recommendations made by the Kelkar Committee in its main as well as Supplementary Report which was accepted by the then Government. The names of bulk drugs which have been excluded from price control after the announcement of the Drugs (Prices Control) Order 1987 is given in the statement. (See below)

(d) and (e) Out of 41 bulk drugs referred to in the above statement, prices of 3 bulk drugs were fixed before they were decontrolled. As price fixation is a time consuming process involving cost-cum-technical study, the prices of other drugs could not be fixed.
